Bradford Pears along Buffalo: Management received an email announcing a state-based initiative. NC Bradford Pear Bounty is a collaborative program between NC State Extension, NC Urban Forest Council, NC Forest Service, and NC Wildlife Federation. The campaign is an incentive program being offered encouraging residents of North Carolina to remove their Bradford Pear Trees. A letter will be sent to the homeowners.

New Business

Landscaping along Buffalo Road: Management will speak to the current landscaping provider regarding adding the landscaping maintenance between the fence and the road from the entrance south to the end of the development.

Whitley Corner Sign: A metal sign that the developer has left at the gate has been abandoned and vegetation is now growing around and on it.

Reflectors added to the Whitley Corner Gate: At the request of North Fort residents, management will send a message to the developer of Whitley Corner asking that reflectors be added to the gate that separates the neighborhoods in the hope that nighttime drivers will see that there is a gate.
